

Alien Tale

I was walking down the street the other day,
When I met a man from outer space,
He tried to zap my head off and he vaporised my knees,
So I hit him with a pizza and a giant can of peas,
I was really in the middle,
I was really in a muddle,
When a storm came along and drowned him in a puddle,
If you don't believe my story,
If you don't believe my rhyme,
It doesn't really matter,
I was lying all the time!
