

assembled	gathered together in one place sulky	to behave in an angry silent way authority	the right to do something or to tell other people what to do archbishop	one of the most important people in the Christian Church melancholy	very sad thimble	used to protect your finger when sewing absurd	something that is silly or ridiculous humbly	to behave in a modest way, not be proud pleaded	to beg someone to do something insult	to say or do something rude and upsetting to someone