

Vocabulary Ninja – SPaG Spotter

Can you spot?	Circle it in the sentence.
the nouns	The bell chimed throughout the town.
the adjective	The silver coin shone brightly in the sunlight.
the adverb	The girl sang happily all the way home.
the speech	“Wait!” Jenny pleaded, “I need to tell you something!”
the determiners	Many people find the winter time too cold.
the preposition	Under the sea, the whales swim peacefully.
the fronted adverbial	On her birthday, she received a brand new bicycle.
the pronoun	Play inside or outside, the choice is yours.
the coordinating conjunction	He sharpened his pencil for a long time.
the subordinating conjunction	The hurricane destroyed the coast before heading inland.
the noun phrase	A party was being held to celebrate the end of term.
Can you add?	Add it to the sentence in the correct place.
add capital letters	when will you go to london to visit daniel?
a comma to make a fronted adverbial	As soon as you arrive sign in at reception.
an apostrophe to show possession	The foxes dens lay undiscovered.
the correct suffix	The mistakes he made were very care_____.
did/done	He _____ his homework yesterday.