

Dressing up as a World War II child

Use your child's normal clothes where possible

Consider looking in a male relative's wardrobe for a waistcoat or flat cap

Try to plait or put up long hair for girls where possible

Borrow a small bag from a family friend.

Keep colours neutral: black, white, grey, blue, green

Should you wish to be more creative, please feel free:

Thank you for your support.