

Spring Storms

- 8 The rain and hail will splash and splat.
- 15 The thunder growls like a big cat.
- 22 A flash of lightning in the dark
- 30 The wind pulls trees down in the park.
- 37 A glint of sunlight in the morn
- 44 sees eggs crack and chicks be born.
- 51 A storm in spring we often see
- 58 as winter and its frost run free.

Read Together Quick Questions

1. Find and copy a phrase that describes how the thunder growls.

_____

2. What does the wind pull down? Tick one.

- frost
- trees
- sunlight

3. How might it feel to be in the park during a spring storm?

_____

_____

4. Do you think that there will be a storm in spring next year?

_____

_____

Spring Storms

- 8 The rain and hail will splash and splat.
15 The thunder growls like a big cat.
22 A flash of lightning in the dark
30 The wind pulls trees down in the park.
37 A glint of sunlight in the morn
44 sees eggs crack and chicks be born.
51 A storm in spring we often see
58 as winter and its frost run free.

Answers

1. Find and copy a phrase that describes how the thunder growls.

like a big cat

2. What does the wind pull down? Tick one.

frost

trees

sunlight

3. How might it feel to be in the park during a spring storm?

Pupils' own responses, such as: It might feel scary to be in the park during a spring storm because the wind is pulling trees down and that is dangerous.

4. Do you think that there will be a storm in spring next year?

Pupils' own responses, such as: Yes, I think that there will be a storm in spring next year because the weather is usually the same in the different seasons each year.