

Dear children

My name is Ruby and I live at Tamworth Castle. I am very lucky because I used to live in a cave and this is much nicer!

My friends at the castle told me that you are coming to visit us. I can't wait to meet you and I might even show you my collection of special, sparkly things.

Don't forget to practise your roaring and I'll see you soon.

Love from
Ruby

