

Vocabulary Ninja – SPaG Spotter

| Can you spot? | Circle it in the sentence. |
|-------------------------------------|---|
| the noun | The vegetables tasted delicious. |
| the adjective | He ran as quickly as his small, skinny legs could carry. |
| the adverb | The tiger licked his lips hungrily. |
| independent clause | The cake is delicious, very sweet. |
| subordinate clause | As soon as Mum sat down, the phone rang. |
| the prepositional phrase | At the top of the tower, you can see for miles. |
| the fronted adverbial | At the start of the year, Jimmy went to the gym everyday. |
| the pronoun | Their flight was delayed for three hours. |
| the coordinating conjunction | He loves to practice the drums and piano every week. |
| the subordinating conjunction | Since it was Sunday, he was allowed a piece of cake. |
| the main clause | Although she was hungry, Jane shared her food with Lois. |
| Can you add? | Add it to the sentence in the correct place. |
| inverted commas to mark the speech | Congratulations the teacher said you have passed! |
| a comma to make a fronted adverbial | Inside the storeroom the boxes were piled high. |
| an apostrophe to show possession | The passengers suitcases were loaded onto the train. |
| the correct suffix | His expression was joy____ because he was sad. |
| add commas in a list | The animal had the head of an eagle body of a horse and tail of a monkey. |