Learning to devise a fair test to see which metals rust

What do I want to find out?

Which metals will I investigate?

What do I predict will happen?

How will I ensure the test is fair?

What I did as my test

What happened in my test