

Soon, Little Grub, Soon

- 8 The little caterpillar looked up at its mum.
- 16 "Will I ever look like you?" he asked.
- 27 "You were just a mini, white egg on a leaf not
30 too long back.
- 39 Then, I saw you transform into the fine, little
48 larva that you are now. That took no time!"
- 58 "I just cannot wait to flap my frail wings for
66 the first time and flutter around the woods
73 with you and Mrs Crane," he said.
- 79 "Soon, little grub, soon," she said.

Read Together Quick Questions

1. Who does the caterpillar want to flutter around the woods with?

---

2. ...to flap my frail wings...
What do you think the word frail means?
Tick one.

- ☐ invisible
- ☐ fragile
- ☐ ugly

3. How is the caterpillar feeling in this story?

---

---

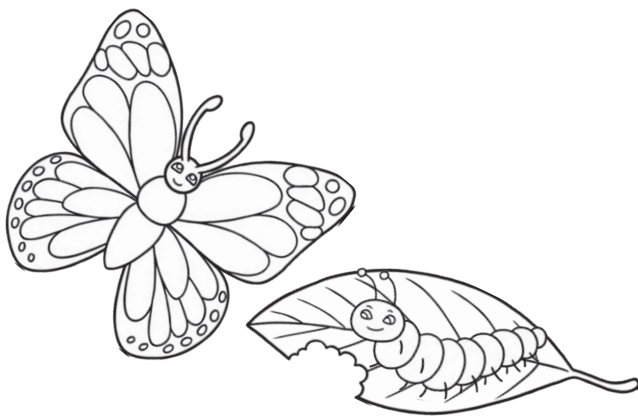

4. Predict what might happen to the caterpillar next.

---

---

Soon, Little Grub, Soon

- 8 The little caterpillar looked up at its mum.
16 "Will I ever look like you?" he asked.
27 "You were just a mini, white egg on a leaf not
30 too long back.
39 Then, I saw you transform into the fine, little
48 larva that you are now. That took no time!"
58 "I just cannot wait to flap my frail wings for
66 the first time and flutter around the woods
73 with you and Mrs Crane," he said.
79 "Soon, little grub, soon," she said.

Read Together Quick Answers

1. Who does the caterpillar want to flutter around the woods with?

The caterpillar wants to flutter around the woods with its mum and Mrs Crane.

2. ...to flap my frail wings...

What do you think the word frail means?
Tick one.

- ☐ invisible
☒ fragile
☐ ugly

3. How is the caterpillar feeling in this story?
Pupils' own responses, such as: The caterpillar is feeling impatient because he wants to do things that he is not able to do yet.

4. Predict what might happen to the caterpillar next.
Pupils' own responses, such as: I think that the caterpillar will start to transform into a butterfly.