

Tudor Buildings

What were Tudor Houses made of?

Tudor Houses were made of :

- wooden frames.
- gaps filled with woven twigs (wattle)
- dung (daub) smeared

Tudor houses were built between 1485 – 1603.

Tudor Café Lichfield

Some Tudor houses are more than 500 years old.

Have you seen any?

photograph

subheading

boxes

illustration

title

bullet points

question

introduction