

The Story of Michael Jordan – Hopes, dreams and resilience

On your own or with a partner, learn Michael Jordan's story so you could re-tell it.

Michael stopped going to the (3)	park and stayed home to (3)	Michael loved to play (1)	basketball. He liked playing it with his (1) practise, so when he was taller he would (3)	be even better at (3)	older brothers and their friends. They were (1)	much taller than he was. One boy called (1) basketball. After a few months Michael hadn't (3)	grown at all. (3)	Mark wouldn't let him join in because (1)	he said Michael was too small. (1)
His Dad said, "Being taller might (4)	help you be a better player but (4)	This made Michael feel (2)	sad, so he asked his (2) your practise and determination have (4)	already made you (4)	Mum how he could get (2)	taller. She said "We can put (2) great." Michael ran off to the park to (4)	join in with the basketball game. (4)	salt in your shoes. That will help you (2)	grow." It was a strange thing to say. (2)

Michael stopped going to the (3)	park and stayed home to (3) practise, so when he was taller he would (3)	be even better at (3) basketball. After a few months Michael hadn't (3)	grown at all. (3)
His Dad said, "Being taller might (4)	help you be a better player but (4) your practise and determination have (4)	already made you (4)
great." Michael ran off to the park to (4)	join in with the basketball game. (4)